SWITZER—LINDER

The marriage of Miss Grace Linder of Kreole to Mr. Thurson Switzer, also of Kreole, was quietly solemnized on Wednesday, August 17, at the Kreole Methodist Parsonage at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with Rev. H. Mellard officiating. The bride was lovely in a navy and white outfit, with which she wore a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds. Her only attendant was the groom's sister, Miss Bettie Switzer, who wore black and white, with a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds. Mr. Switzer was attended by the bride's brother, Marvin Linder of Kreole.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with only a few close friends and relatives present. Cake and punch were served as refreshments. The couple left after the reception for a short honeymoon trip down the Gulf Coast. They will be at home to their friends in Kreole.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Linder of Kreole. She attended the Technical High School in Scranton, Pennsylvania, graduating in 1934, and has been employed in Brumfield's Store in Pascagoula. Mr. Switzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Switzer of Gautier, graduated from the Mobile County High School in 1934, and is now employed at the Southern Kraft Corporation.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Switzer wish them many years of happiness and prosperity.

Hello,

I recently acquire an old photograph with the photographer's name clearly marked on it and the place for the studio, Ocean Springs (my hometown!). The photographer's name is Ross A. Switzer, and the format is a cabinet card (about four inches by six inches), so it was made between 1866 and 1910. Can you tell me anything else about Switzer or his operation? I appreciate anything you can tell me.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. McCaslin:

We have found only a bit of information so far on Ross A. Switzer's studio. We have emailed a gentleman who has done extensive research on Ocean Springs history to see if he has any other information. He will either email you directly or respond to us and we will remit the information to you. His name is Ray Bellande.

The only mention we've found on the studio comes from Regina Hines Ellison's book "Ocean Springs, 1892." On page 33 of the book it states:

"Mr. Switzer of Pass Christian had reportedly bought a lot at the corner of Washington and Porter in March 1892 and was planning to build his home and a photograph gallery there."

We will email again if we find anything else. I just wanted to let you know that we have been looking for the information for you.

Sincerely,
Sherry Owens

Dear Ray,

Once again, we find ourselves in need of your guidance on Ocean Springs history. We recently received the email, below, and find that we have very little information on Ross A. Switzer's photo studio. We find slight mention of it in Regina's book on "Ocean Springs, 1892." It reads: "Mr. Switzer of Pass Christian had reportedly bought a lot at the corner of Washington and Porter in March 1892 and was planning to build his home and a photograph gallery there."

Do you have any other information on it or know of any other resource that we might check? You may write back to me with any information that you might have or respond directly to the researcher, whichever you prefer. I would love it if you would carbon copy any information to this address, though, so that we would have it for future reference.

I hope that you don't mind, it would surely be a big help.

Thanks much,
Sherry

Subject: Question about Photographer

Hello,

I recently acquire an old photograph with the photographer's name clearly marked on it and the place for the studio, Ocean Springs (my hometown!). The photographer's name is Ross A. Switzer, and the format is a cabinet card (about four inches by six inches), so it was made between 1866 and 1910. Can you tell me anything else about Switzer or his operation? I appreciate anything you can tell me.

Thanks,

R. B. McCaslin
